

Pupils of the Week in P7

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to Peter for taking a mature approach to all of his tasks both inside and out of school. He has settled brilliantly into his P7 leadership role and he is a super role model for everyone in our school. Well done!

Well done to Megan for displaying a positive approach in all aspects of her school life and her personality shines through in all that she does. Her work ethic, determination and infectious smile light up our room on a daily basis!

Pupils of the Week in P6

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to Saoirse and Ria for the consistent high standard they continue to produce in their homework activities. Their detail and presentation of their work is excellent!

Well done Francis and Charlie for the super concentration they displayed this week during their classroom activities.

Well done boys!

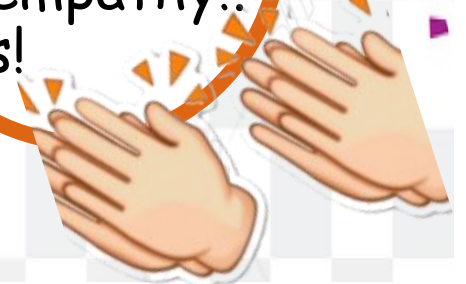

Pupils of the Week in P5

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to Daithi and Cara for their enthusiasm and determination towards Accelerated Reading. Both of them achieved their targets and they bare motivating and inspiring the others in the class.

Well done to Aine and Erin for their caring nature and the way they are great friends to all. They have all the qualities that a friend should have - they listen, offer help when needed and show empathy!
Truly admirable girls!

Pupils of the Week in P4

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to John and Cara Mae for the superb determination they have shown to master column subtraction using decomposition. We are all really impressed with their hard work.

Well done to Fiadh for the fantastic attention and listening that she shows during lessons. Her whole body listening is of the highest standard!

Congrats to Caoimhín for always trying his best to complete his work to the best of his ability. Keep up the super effort
Caoimhín!

Pupils of the Week in P3

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations Dara for the super sentences he wrote yesterday in his responses to reading tasks.

Well done to Thomas for being very brave when he told an adult that another child was annoying him.

Congrats to Liam for kindly helping to tidy up in P2 and for playing so nicely with others!

A big bualadh bos goes to Colleen, Lillianna Mae and Olivia for always putting such great effort into their work!

Pupils of the Week in P2

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to Sean and Eoghain for working so hard at their maths in class and for showing great determination to get all of their work done. They also helped Mr O'Brien to tidy up the classroom which was a great job!

Pupils of the Week in P1

Friday 22nd November 2024

Congratulations to Cillian who has been amazing for sitting in his seat at lunch time.

Well done to Killian for taking greater care with his handwriting and presentation of his work. It is lovely to see!

Congrats to Louie for being a wonderful listener. He shows great concentration during all of his work!

